HOUSE OF SPIRITS

A revolving 1924 Mason & Hamlin grand piano and a curving Victorian staircase leading nowhere are just a few of the opulent, surreal details found at Cafe Was, the newest restaurant and lounge from Ivan Kane (of Deep and Forty Deuce). Designed by New York's RKIT Design, the Hollywood hideaway features a bistro-inspired menu including classic dishes such as moules frites, as well as an extensive selection of caviar and Champagne. 1521 N. Vine St., Hollywood, 323-466-5400, cafewas.com.
